Signature of Judicial Officer

5. The Passport Act of 1926, as amended, was in full force and effect throughout the period of this investigation. This Act, codified in 22 U.S.C. § 211a, authorized the United States Secretary of State to grant and issue United States passports under rules prescribed by the President and/or other federal laws. Some of these rules are that a person wanting a United States passport must complete and submit an application to the State Department and must submit proof of American citizenship, usually a birth certificate, and proof of identity, usually a driver's license and Social Security Number, with their application. Another rule allows officers at United States Post Offices to accept passport applications, and to then forward them to the State Department for processing.

6. Title 18 U.S.C. § 1542 states, in pertinent part, "Whoever willfully and knowingly makes any false statement in an application for a passport with intent to induce or secure the issuance of a passport under the authority of the United States, either for their own use or the use of another, contrary to the laws regulating the issuance of passports or the rules prescribed pursuant to such laws...shall be fined under this title...or imprisoned not more than 10 years...or both." Title 18 U.S.C. § 3291 provides for a ten year statute of limitations for passport offenses.

Facts Supporting Probable Cause

7. On or about December 26, 2002, a person purporting to be JOSE MANGUAL RODRIGUEZ submitted an application for a United States passport at the Golden Gate Post Office in San Francisco, which is located in the Northern District of California. A review of this application and other State Department records disclosed this person submitted a Puerto Rican birth certificate bearing the name of JOSE MANGUAL RODRIGUEZ with his passport application, and that he listed a date of birth of March 5, 1978.

8. This application was referred to DSS for criminal investigation because of the existence of fraud indicators.

9. On February 4, 2003, a DSS Special Agent encountered and interviewed the person purporting to be JOSE MANGUAL RODRIGUEZ. The DSS Special Agent did not believe that the applicant was born in Puerto Rico, because he could not answer basic questions about Puerto Rico. The DSS Special Agent took consensual fingerprints from this person and ended the encounter.

10. On February 6, 2003, the DSS Special Agent submitted the taken fingerprints to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) for review. DHS matched them to fingerprints on file for JESUS MEDINA, not JOSE MANGUAL RODRIGUEZ, with a birth date of December 18, 1979, and not March 5, 1978. The DSS Special Agent was then unable to locate or re-contact the applicant after his true name was identified, and this application and case remained unresolved.

11. On March 20, 2008, as part of a "Cold Case" review, I checked records on file with the Department of Motor Vehicles and the Employment Development Department concerning JOSE MANGUAL RODRIGUEZ. I was able to locate the current whereabouts of this passport applicant.

Conclusion

12. Based on the facts and information detailed in the affidavit, I believe probable cause exists that JESUS MEDINA, made a false statement in a passport application, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1542, when he falsely stated his name JOSE MANGUAL RODRIGUEZ, on the aforementioned passport application submitted at the Golden Gate Post Office in the Northern District of California. As such, I respectfully request a warrant for his arrest.

Under penalty of perjury, I swear that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.
